Tenley teaches and gives clinics to students with various herding breeds. She is an exceptional teacher and stockdog handler. Tenley teaches handlers to work with their dogs with consistent communication and teamwork, and has experience working with a wide variety of herding breeds and all levels of handlers.

About the clinic:

We will start at 10:30am on July 21, all other days we will start at 9am.

The clinic will be just on sheep.

Food and drinks will be offered by Jule und Stefan.

In the evening we'll go out for dinner.

The clinic is limited to 10 dogs per day.

You can walk your dogs close to the clinic place. Please, be sure that you keep your dogs on leash and clean up after your dogs on the property. Please stay with your dogs on the roads and don't walk on pastures or in the wood.

Please, take care that your dogs are quiet and don't bark the whole time if they wait for their turn.

All dogs entered must have a liability insurance and have to be vaccinated. Handler is responsible for damage to livestock, humans etc. Please have in mind that it is no fun for the sheep taking part in the clinic. Handle the livestock with care and respect.

Please, take care for some seats. Further, we are not allowed to take a video of the clinic.

Costs:

Three day clinic:

For WEWASC members (for one dog) clinic cost 250,00 EUR, incl. the drinks and lunch.

For NON WEWASC members (for one dog) 285,00 EUR, incl. the drinks and food.

Spectators are welcome. Each person pay 35,00 EUR incl. food and lunch per day. Children up to an age of 13 are free.

We prefer people who like to enter three days. If some of you are not able to come three days, please ask Carmen for the costs and how to handle this.

Please notice:

Entries are only valid if both payment and entry form have been received. Please, note that the entry is only valid if you send the entry form together with proof of payment.

If the clinic fills up, there will be a waiting list. Please, write your banking details on the back side of the entry form, in case we have to reimburse.

If you have to cancel the clinic not closer than 4 weeks (till June, 20th 2010) to the event, you can get your money back. After that you have to send someone else to the clinic to get the money back.
