

WESTERN EUROPE WORKING AUSTRALIAN SHEPHERD CLUB e.V.

Guideline for the organizations of Working Dog Inspection

Please read these guidelines very carefully BEFORE starting to organize an event in the name of WEWASC e.V.

- Who can do a WEWASC Working Dog Inspection (WD)?
 - all WEWASC members having his/her own stock at home (sheep or/and cattle or/and ducks)
 - all people working (not training) on stockfarms regularly with the dog who is going to do the WD Inspection (the WD Inspection has to be on this farm)
- Why doing a WD Inspection?
 - you can advertise your sire on WEWASC Homepage if he had passed the WD Inspection (<http://www.wewasc.com/german/waktiv-index.html>)
 - you can advertise you puppies on WEWASC Homepage if your female and the sire are fulfilling WEWASC guidelines for breeding (for example if both parents had passed the WD Inspection, or one is a WTCH and the other passed the WD Inspection)
(<http://www.wewasc.com/german/waktiv-index.html>)
 - for showing the dogs ability to work stock if you don´t like to show your dog on trials
- What´s to do on a WEWASC WD Inspection?
 - You need to fulfill the requirements (have a look at the sanction form) of a WEWASC WD Inspection on one day under one judge

- If you want to organize a WD Inspection, please contact the WD Coordinator (see WEWASC homepage) first. The WD Coordinator will give you all forms and information you need to guide you through the organization.
The following forms are available:
 - WD sanction form
 - WD evaluation form for judges
 - list of possible WEWASC WD judges
- Invite one judge for your WD Inspection and make an appointment after contacting the WD Coordinator.
 - WD judges have to fulfill the same conditions like WEWASC Farm trial judges
 - Judges are not allowed to judge relatives or dogs bred by their own
 - Judges need to have achieved two WTCHs and have to be WEWASC members for a minimum of 3 years
 - Judges can also be out of other official herding clubs or can be authorized by the WEWASC board
- Fill out the WD Sanctioning Request carefully and completely and send it to the WD Coordinator not later than 30 days prior the requested WD Inspection.
- Pay the fees WEWASC requires not later than 30 days prior the requested WD Inspection. Don't forget to add a copy of your payment to your sanction form.

Fees are: 25€ for the first dog, 20€ for the second dog
